

2) Pass Crypt Farmhouse to your left, continue along the road and under the railway line (disused).

3) Join the main road, you will see The Malthouse 50 yds further on. The Guest entrance is at the back.

1a) Leave the South Downs Way about half way down the slope of Cocking Down, taking the sign posted foot path across a field (on the south side of the track at this point is a very large chalk boulder).

1b) Alternatively, carry on until you pass the dairy farm and take the bridle path to your left, just past the cottages.

The Malthouse is on the left-hand side of the main road (A286).

The Malthouse from the South Downs Way (travelling east).